Declaration

Students are bound to observe the general rules and regulations of discipline, in the Institute premises which the Management may frame from time to time. In particular their attention is drawn to the following.

1. Students attending class or meetings of the Institute or the Institute societies or associations or other gatherings within the Institute premises or elsewhere are expected to be neatly dressed. At Public functions of the Institute Students are expected to show a sense of discipline, decency and cultured restraint.
2. Punctuality and regular attendance are insisted upon. Leave or absence from Institute should be informed well in advance, however unforeseen absence must be justified on return to the Institute.
3. Abstaining from Institute examinations and other unit tests conducted will not be tolerated and no excuse is granted towards the same, except for inevitable reasons which is to be proved by the Parent/Guardian and a medical certificate to be produced in case of illness.
4. Students are not permitted to appear for the semester examination if he/she has less than 75% of attendance in each subject.
5. If he/she does not attend the preliminary and preparatory examinations conducted by the Institute and if his/her conduct and progress is not satisfactory, he/she will not be eligible for the annual examinations.
6. The Institute though not responsible for the conduct of its students outside the premises, will take cognisance of any serious misconduct of the student committed outside its premises. However on any educational trip or visits conducted by the Institute, the code of conduct is insisted upon.
7. Smoking and consuming any intoxicants is strictly prohibited in the Institute premises, WHILE USING MOBILE PHONES INSIDE THE CLASSROOM ARE ALSO STRICTLY PROHIBITED.
8. Students who do not live with their parents or relatives in Bangalore should give their name and address of a local guardian appointed by their parents and duly signed by the Guardians indicating their acceptance of the students responsibility.
9. Books, Magazines and News Papers etc., which are not approved by the Institute shall not be brought to the class.
10. If he/she abstains from two consecutive classes in any subject he/she should obtain permission from the principal.
11. To uphold the dignity of the Institute, the students are not supposed to cause any harm to other fellow students, property of the Institute, disturbance to the classes.
12. To possess Identity Card and wear it regularly and to produce when demanded by concerned authorities.
13. The students are expected to behave rationally with the teaching and non-teaching staff of the Institute.
14. Discipline in the Laboratory is to be maintained. Any damage caused is to be fully borne by the student.
15. In case he/she tries to organise strike in the regard after getting admitted, he/she will be terminated from the College and such Students are at liberty to seek admission elsewhere and their Transfer Certificate will be kept ready for being sent to any other institution he/she may join.

I agree to abide by the above stated code of conduct. If I fail to do so, I may be terminated temporarily or permanently as deemed fit by the Principal. I shall be held responsible for the same.
